

Permanent address
5105 Warren Place NW
Washington, DC 20016
USA

EMILY PAKULSKI
enp2111@columbia.edu || (202) 250 4485
emilypakulski.com

Current address
5896 Lerner Hall
2920 Broadway
New York, NY 10027

Skills Languages: Java, C
Web: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, AngularJS
Mobile: Android (frontend and backend)
Version control: Git

Projects linger.io Android developer & frontend designer columbia.edu/~enp2111/campustaxishare full stack developer

Experience Undergraduate Student Researcher (Speech Lab), New York, NY January 2014–Present

- Building and continuously improving a text parser in Java to count and annotate hedge words
- Annotating text data for instances where the speaker is hedging (being non-committal to his or her statement)

Center for Social and Economic Research (CASE), Warsaw, Poland July–August 2013
Research team intern

- Compiled data from EU Member States concerning changes in public transport usage
- Prepared and formatted data for statistical analyses

Double Discovery Center of Columbia University, New York, NY November 2012–May 2013
"Writing and Textual Analysis" classroom teacher and college applicant mentor

- Designed and implemented lesson plans for every class as part of a cohesive syllabus
- Taught a class of 20 high school seniors persuasive writing and close reading techniques
- Edited college essay drafts and held one-on-one meetings with students to discuss improvements

Alliance Program, Columbia University, New York, NY December 2012–May 2013
Administrative assistant with web management duties

- Created promotional materials on Adobe Photoshop for study abroad programs
- Created original website content and updated coding standards for website and HTML newsletter

British Chamber of Commerce, Brussels, Belgium June 2011
Accounting and event management intern

- Balanced books using MS Excel, MS Access, and BOB (Belgian accounting software)
- Coordinated with venue representatives to establish availability for and logistics of various events

Power Pirate, Washington, DC October 2007–May 2010
Manager, graphic designer, and singer-guitarist for rock band

- Wrote press releases and liaised with press outlets; secured coverage in the Washington Post, DC Commission of Arts and Humanities Journal, Washington Life Magazine, local newspapers, blogs, etc.
- Coordinated with venue representatives to book over 40 performance events in the DC metropolitan area
- Designed and distributed promotional materials, both in print and via social media

Education Columbia University, Columbia College, New York, NY Expected May 2016
Bachelor of Arts, Computer Science

- GPA: 3.8 out of 4.0

International School of Brussels, Belgium Graduated May 2012
International Baccalaureate (IB) Bilingual Diploma; AP Scholar with Distinction

- Graduated in top 2% of IB Diploma candidates worldwide
- Bilingual diploma awarded for fluency in English and Spanish

Washington International School, Washington, DC Attended 2008–2010

Languages Fluent in Spanish, Dutch, French; proficient in Polish